

Day One Biopharmaceuticals, Inc.

Consumer Health Data Notice

Effective Date: June 4, 2026

Please refer to our Privacy Notice for full details about how Day One collects, uses, shares, or otherwise processes your personal information.

This Consumer Health Data Notice supplements our Privacy Notice and provides additional details about how Day One may process personal information defined as Consumer Health Data under applicable U.S. state laws, such as Washington’s My Health My Data Act (MHMDA), Connecticut’s My Health My Data Act, and Nevada’s Consumer Health Data Privacy Law (NV CHDP).

Categories of Consumer Health Data We May Collect, Use, and Share Include:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Information about health-related conditions, symptoms, status, diagnoses, and medications.</li><li>• Health-related surgeries or procedures.</li><li>• The use or purchase of prescribed medications.</li><li>• Social, psychological, behavioral, or medical interventions.</li><li>• Measurements of bodily functions, including gait, vital signs, or characteristics, that may also be considered biometric information.</li><li>• Diagnostic testing or treatments.</li><li>• Gender-affirming care information.</li><li>• Reproductive or sexual health information.</li><li>• Biometric data.</li><li>• Genetic data.</li><li>• Precise location information that could reasonably indicate your attempt to acquire or receive health services or supplies.</li><li>• Information that could identify your attempt to seek health care services or information, including services that allow you to assess, measure, improve, or learn about your or another person’s health.</li><li>• Other information that may be used to infer or derive data related to the above or other health information.</li></ul>
Sources of Consumer Health Data	Consumer Health Data may be collected directly from you, from your interactions with our Websites and Services, from information we lawfully obtain from other sources, such as business partners, joint marketing partners, public records or websites, or other third parties, as described in the Collecting and Using your personal information section of our Privacy Notice .
Our Collection and Use of Consumer Health Data	We, and our contracted service providers, may collect and use Consumer Health Data to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Perform or provide the products and Services you have requested;</li></ul>

- Prevent, detect, and investigate security incidents that compromise the availability, authenticity, integrity, or confidentiality of stored or transmitted Consumer Health Data;
- Resist malicious, deceptive, fraudulent, or illegal actions directed at us and prosecuting those responsible for those actions;
- Maintain or service accounts, provide customer service, process or fulfill orders and transactions, and verify customer information;
- Undertake activities to verify, maintain, improve, or enhance the quality or safety of a service or device that we own, manufacture, or control;
- For targeted advertising, if you choose to allow the use of Targeting Cookies;
- Clinical Research opportunities;
- Patient support programs and other Services we offer;
- To detect and prevent fraud, secure our systems and facilities, and perform accounting, audit, and other internal functions, such as internal investigations; and
- To comply with applicable laws, legal processes, and internal policies.

Categories of Third Parties We May Disclose Your Consumer Health Data

- Third parties and service providers who work on Day One's behalf to provide certain Services.
- Business partners with whom we collaborate regarding our investigational products and programs, such as scientific advisors, joint venture partners, and strategic collaboration partners.
- Legal, regulatory, or other enforcement authorities and other third parties if required by law, regulation, or judicial process or to protect the security, rights, and property of Day One or users of our Websites and Services.
- Research and analytical service providers who conduct research and data analytics on our behalf.
- Third parties in the event Day One is involved in an actual or contemplated merger, acquisition, or sale of a portion of its assets or in the unlikely event of bankruptcy. If this occurs, the Consumer Health Data may be subject to the policies of the receiving organization. As required by applicable law, we will further inform you of such business transfers involving your Consumer Health Data.
- Third parties to protect rights and interests, such as when needed for corporate audits, to investigate or respond to a complaint or threat, or to exercise our legal rights.
- Social media platforms, if you choose to allow Social Media Cookies advertising partners, or if you choose to allow Targeting Cookies.

We do not disclose Consumer Health Data to our affiliates.

How to Exercise Your Rights
Related to Consumer Health
Data

You may have certain rights with respect to your Consumer Health Data, including rights to access, delete, or withdraw consent relating to such data, subject to certain exceptions. You can request to exercise these rights by contacting us at privacy@dayonebio.com.

If your request to exercise a right you may have under applicable law is denied, you may have the right to appeal that decision by contacting us at privacy@dayonebio.com. Please provide details of your concerns and reference our decision on your request so we can address your appeal. We will respond to your appeal in accordance with applicable law.

We may update this Consumer Health Data Notice from time to time. If we do, we will post an updated version on this page unless the applicable law requires another type of notice.

Supplement to Consumer Health Data Notice for Nevada Consumers

This Supplement applies to Nevada Consumers for purposes of providing additional disclosures required by Nevada's Consumer Health Data privacy law. Capitalized terms used in this Supplement are defined under Nevada's Consumer Health Data privacy law and shall have the meanings set forth therein.

1. Purposes & manner of processing. We Collect, use, Process, and Share Consumer Health Data for the purposes and in the manners described in our Consumer Health Data Notice, which also provides additional disclosures relevant to Nevada Consumers.
2. Review & revision of Consumer Health Data. If you would like to review and/or revise your Consumer Health Data, you may submit a request to us via the methods listed in our Consumer Health Data Notice. We will respond to your requests to exercise your rights in accordance with applicable law, but in any case, no later than 45 days after receiving your request. We may extend this period to 45 days only where doing so is permitted under applicable law.
3. Changes to this supplement. We will notify you before making any changes to our privacy practices with respect to your Consumer Health Data by posting an updated notice on this page with an updated effective date.
4. Third-Party Collection of Consumer Health Data. Please note that some Third Parties may collect Consumer Health Data about you over time and across different websites or online services you may visit.